Tender for Appointment as Internal Auditors for undertaking the Internal Audit work of our Corporation at the Branch Office Kalamboli

Notice inviting bids

The Cotton Corporation of India Ltd., Navi Mumbai intends to appointment Chartered Accountant firm as Internal Auditors for undertaking the Internal Audit work of our Corporation at the Branch Office Kalamboli.

Introduction:-

The Cotton Corporation of India Ltd (CCIL), is a Government of India Undertaking under administrative control of Ministry of Textiles. As per mandate given by the Govt. of India, the Corporation is a nodal agency to undertake Minimum Support Price (MSP) operations without any quantitative limit as and when the prices of raw cotton touch to the support price announced by the Govt. of India.

In the event of kapas prices ruling above MSP level, Corporation undertakes commercial operations at its own cost for supply of cotton to mills in the State sector as well as private sector. All these operations are dovetailed to benefit the cotton growers on the one hand and supply of quality cotton to the textile mills on the other hand.

Operation:-

The Corporation undertakes Kapas (Seed Cotton) purchase operations in various APMC's/Market yards in all 11 cotton growing states at about 570 centres/APMCs under 15 branch offices. Further, Corporation has 2 sales sub-branches situated at Coimbatore and Kolkata and one godown at Kalamboli, Navi Mumbai. Its Head office is at CBD Belapur, Navi Mumbai.

The kapas is purchased directly from the cotton farmers except in the northern states where it is through the commission Agents. The kapas purchased is processed in the various Ginning and Pressing factories engaged before the beginning of the cotton season through tender process. The Fully Pressed Bales (FP bales) are stored in nearest available CWC/SWC/Cooperative/private godowns. The FP bales are sold in domestic and international market to the registered buyers through e-auction on daily basis. The by-product i.e. cotton seed is also sold on day to day basis through e-auction. The other miscellaneous items viz Ginja, cowdy, RP/YP Bales, cotton waste are sold at Branch level at the end of the cotton season.

Apart from cotton trade, the Corporation let out its surplus office space available at some branches and head office on rental basis. In addition to rent, the common expenses are shared as per agreed terms and GST is collected.

Existing Accounting software (ERP):-

The Corporation is having Oracle E-biz Suite R-12 Platform and has Sales & Marketing, Inventory, Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, General Ledger Module and Human Resources (HR) Modules in operation.

For more information, bidder may visit CCIL website i.e. www.cotcorp.org.in

Guidelines on Internal Audit

Introduction:-

The Cotton Corporation of India Ltd. is a Government of India undertaking under administrative control of Ministry of Textiles. As per mandate given by the Govt. of India, the Corporation is a nodal agency to undertake Minimum Support Price (MSP) operations without any quantitative limit as and when the prices of raw cotton touch to the support price announced by the Govt. of India. In case the prices of raw cotton are above support price, the Corporation undertakes Commercial Purchase (CP) operations at its own risk and cost.

Operation:-

The Corporation undertakes kapas (Seed Cotton) purchase operations in various APMC's/Market yards in all 11 cotton growing states. The kapas is purchased directly from the cotton farmers except in the northern states where it is through the commission Agents. The kapas so purchased is processed in the various Ginning and Pressing factories engaged in the beginning of the cotton season through tender process. The Fully Pressed Bales (FP bales) are stored in nearest available CWC/SWC/Cooperative godowns. In the absence of sufficient godowns the stocks are also stored in private godowns on need basis. The byproduct i.e. cotton seed is sold on day to day basis through e-auction and lifted by the buyers from the concerned Ginning and Pressing factories.

Internal Audit set up:

Presently, the Corporation is having in-house Internal Audit (IA) system which is in the nature of concurrent audit. At each branch an internal audit officer is posted who is having an experience of about 20-30 years in the Corporation. In some of the branches he is assisted by a staff member. The internal audit officer also visits operating centres/factories/godowns and submits tour reports immediately after completion of tour to the branch office under copy to head office. He also submits internal audit report on monthly basis. The scope of the internal audit firm functions covers all the area of the operations. The functions, roles and duties of Internal Auditor to ensure that all the areas of operations are covered, records are maintained upto date and the various laid down procedure and policies of the Corporation are implemented.

With a view to have independence of the internal audit and to further strengthen the internal audit system in the branches, the Corporation proposes to appoint reputed, well experience Chartered Accountants firms to undertake the internal audit work at branches.

The following are the broad guidelines for internal audit functions, roles and duties:-

A) Objectives of Internal Audit

Internal audit is an independent appraisal function of the Corporation. It objectively examines, evaluates and reports on the internal control systems after through verification. The internal audit should exercise due care in fulfilling his responsibilities. It should adequately plan, control and record his work on daily basis. It should identify and evaluate the organization's internal control system as a basis for reporting upon its adequacy and effectiveness.

The internal auditor should ensure that findings, conclusions and recommendations arising from internal audit work are communicated promptly to the Branch under intimation to Head office and should seek response on the same. He should ensure that arrangements are made to follow up audit observations to monitor what action has been taken on them. He should be able to exercise judgment, express opinions and present recommendations with impartiality. The internal audit, notwithstanding his employment by the Corporation, should be free from any conflict of interest.

B) Organizational relationships

The internal audit prepares the internal audit plan in consultation with the Branch/Head office so as to identify the areas of concern. Matters which arise in the course of the audit be discussed directly with the Branch. Further, the discussions and comments of the Branch is necessary on the monthly audit report. The Internal audit is an independent appraisal function within the organization whereas the statutory auditor has a statutory responsibility to express an independent opinion on the financial statements. The internal audit will be required to allow access to the records and reports to the Statutory/CAG audit as and when conducted. Since internal audit evaluates an organization's internal control system the Statutory/CAG audit may need to be satisfied that the internal audit function is being planned and performed effectively..

C) Performance and Control.

The internal audit should be able to show that his work has been performed in a way which is consistent with this guideline. The internal audit should possess a knowledge of the aims of the Corporation and the internal control system and aware of the relevant applicable laws.

Internal audit work should be planned, controlled and recorded in order to determine priorities, establish and achieve objectives, and ensure the effective and efficient use of audit resources. Internal audit is needed to ensure that internal audit objectives are achieved and work is performed effectively. The internal audit needs to be able to ensure that work delegated has been properly performed and detailed working papers are maintained.

The main objective of the internal Audit is to ensure adherence to management policies and directives, safeguard of assets, completeness and accuracy of records and compliance with statutory requirements etc.

D) Reports

Before issuing the final report, the internal auditor should normally discuss the contents with the Finance Head and Branch Head and may submit a draft report to them, for confirmation of factual accuracy and their comments. Final monthly internal audit report is required to be submitted to the HO under copy to branch. The Audit report should include audit findings, Comments of the branch, recommendations and conclusions of the audit. The monthly internal audit reports as well as visit reports received from the Internal Audit Officers are reviewed at Head Office. The reports should be self-explanatory.
